

St. Albans Police and AmCare Ambulance stand by on Lower Newton Street as in the background city and town firefighters watch over an ongoing propane fire on Saturday morning. Firefighters stood by until the full contents of the burning tank at Liberty Propane were depleted. The vehicles in the foreground are parked in the Sticks & Stuff parking lot, just west of the railroad crossing.

DAVE ST. PIERRE photo

Propane tank fire causes evacuation

Police continue investigation

By MICHELLE MONROE
Messenger Staff Writer

ST. ALBANS CITY — Propane gas from a damaged tank at Liberty Propane caused the temporary evacuation of 40 residents Saturday morning.

Gas from the tank in the company's yard

► See PROPANE on page 5A